Soldiers Hit Like Demons Win 13 To 6

Legionnaires Play Errorless Ball For Third Victory Over Monterey Park

Sierra Madre's soldiers slugged out a 13 to 6 victory over the Legionnaires from Monterey Park at the school athletic field in the second Legion League game of the year here on Friday evening. It was the third consecutive defeat of the visitors at the hands of the locals, who played an errorless game in the field while they pounded out 14 hits.

Pratt held the invaders scoreless during the first seven innings and with the score 12 to 0 retired at the end of the seventh inning in favor of Burroughs, who allowed one run in the eighth. Welch started the ninth but was as wild as a March hare. Four solid hits sandwiched in between bases on balls scored 5 runs and caused Manager Harkness to take Welch out of the box. Burroughs himself doing some twirling. He struck out the first batter to face him, but walked the next, filling the bases. Harkness then waved Pratt back into the box.

Pratt fanned the next batter and the next man sent out a weak infield roller for an easy out at first, ending the Monterey Park rally.

Sierra Madre scored three runs in the first inning. Burroughs walked, Young singled, Burroughs going to third. Harkness singled and the ball rolled between the center fielder's legs which allowed all three men to score.

Sierra Madre scored three more runs in the second inning. Olsen singled, C. Hill struck out, Matthis singled, Burroughs singled and three runs went over when Young hit a single.

There was no further scoring until the sixth, when Sierra Madre batted around and punched over six more runs. Evans flew out. Olsen was safe at first on Bore's error. V. Hill grounded out to (Continued on Page Five)

ART, MUSIC AND DRAMA ARE AMALGAMATED IN ART LEAGUE AS NEW DIRECTORS ARE ADDED

Five New Members Are Added To Organizations Board Of Governors

By Henry Ivins Hawthurst
The Board of Governors of the Municipal Art League held its first meeting in the League's new quarters on Monday night and sought to enlarge the organization's scope and usefulness to the community by the election of five additional members, besides discussing various plans for organizing the classes that will soon be under instruction.

The League is immeasurably stronger as a result of the additions to its governing body and its teaching staff and a class membership will surely be something that any aspiring young artist may well be proud of.

The new governors, or directors, are: Miss Lydia Webster, who has donated the use of the "Old Barn" for the League; Mrs. Milton J. Steinberger, who after years of hard struggle has led our Community Players to an enviable position in historic art; Payson Ames, who is to be one

"Hollywood Coast" Destroyed By Quake The Germans Hear

In a communication from Dr. Esther Caukin Brunauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Caukin, of 497 West Grand View avenue, who is in Germany under an Oberlander Foundation fellowship, Dr. Brunauer states, in describing the recent Hitlerist upheavals in Germany, "I have never seen such order and normalcy—while the walls of the State are falling." On the day the three-day anti-Jewish boycott went into effect she said she saw no physical violence.

"The Coast of Hollywood destroyed by earthquake," this was the news of the earthquake, March 10, which shook Long Beach. Dr. Brunauer wrote that in the old world "Hollywood" is a synonym for Southern California.

Canyon Park Rooster Row Is Reopened

The Canyon Park rooster suit is back in the City Court. Judge Tom Neale reopened the case when the neighbors of Mrs. Carrie Fagge, of 363 Sycamore Place, gave notice that she had not abated the nuisance of which they complained and for the maintenance of which Judge Neale fined Mrs. Fagge $50.

A hearing in the case was fixed for 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning but postponed when a doctor's certificate stating that Mrs. Fagge was physically unable to appear was presented to the Judge. Next Friday is the date now set.

Mrs. Fagge pleaded guilty when she was arraigned last week charged by Mrs. Lela Roulette, her next door neighbor; Mrs. Alice Carter, of East Alegria avenue, and Mrs. Myrtle A. Weese, of Canyon Drive, with violation of the city "nuisance ordinance." They complained that roosters kept by the Fagges made sleep in the neighborhood impossible. Mrs. Roulette set forth in her complaint that she had not had a sound night's sleep in months and had been obliged to go away at times for rest.

Judge Neale agreed to a suspension of the fine conditioned upon Mrs. Fagge abating the nuisance within five days. On Monday she received a complaint that the offending roosters were not only still doing business at the old stand, but that the bright moonlight nights seemed to deepen the clamor calls of the birds and to give them renewed energy. So all the principals were summoned to appear in court for the hearing that has now been postponed.

Cases Of Beer Won By Prize Bowlers

The newly organized Sierra Madre bowling team, consisting of Andy Liscomb, John Froehlich and Fred Krinke, won three victories over the Helms Uplifters of Monrovia on Tuesday evening. This is the first game of the summer league.

A team, with Andy Liscomb, Lea Shaffer, Mrs. Sue Krinke, John Froehlich and Fred Krinke as its members, took third place in the Monrovia league, which terminated recently. John Froehlich and Fred Krinke won first place at the close of the league in the double sweepstakes, comprising the best bowlers. La Roy Davis won first place in another sweepstakes which followed.

The winners of the sweepstakes, besides being awarded money, brought home a case of beer each as reward for their excellent showing.

Mothers' Day

BY MARY WARD

All down the misty ages
The wraiths of mothers pass;
We think of all their patience
And loving dreams, alas,
Bestowed on growing children
Into tall men and maids
Their many anxious moments
Along the past decades,
When they washed our little faces
And wiped our childish noses,
Yet now we only send them
Boquets of fragrant roses.
This day is named for Mother . . .
This fourteenth of May;
This Nation bows in reverence,
On this, our Mother's Day.

Surprise Storm Brings Rainfall Total Near Normal

This city received its portion of moisture as a result of the belated storm which swept over most of Southern California Wednesday. The gauge at the East Central pumping station had recorded .31 of an inch up until 8 o'clock Thursday morning, bringing the total for the season near the 17-inch average of the last three years.

Lower temperatures accompanied the surprise showers. Snow began falling in the mountains early Wednesday morning. At a late hour in the evening a six-inch mantle of whiteness covered Mt. Wilson, extending with diminishing depths nearly down to the foothills. Motorists entering the city early yesterday morning reported that the Sierra Madre range presented a beautiful sight from the valley.

Sierra Madre was shocked to learn of the death of D. C. Knowles, of 541 West Orange Grove avenue, at Grant's Pass, Oregon, on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Knowles was agent for the Santa Fe railroad at Santa Anita station. He was born in Kansas 60 years ago.

Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Meyer, of Grant's Pass, and a son, D. Carl Knowles, of this city, and a sister in Grant's Pass.

Mr. Knowles had been in ill health for about three years. He moved with his wife to Oregon about a year ago in an effort to regain his health.

Services will be held at Grant's parlors, West Central avenue, this (Friday) afternoon, with Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard officiating. Interment will take place at Sierra Madre Cemetery.

Ball Game Tonight

The Temple City team of the Legion League plays the local soldiers on the school athletic field here tonight. The two teams have played several exciting games here and a big crowd is expected.

Artists Plan Program To Boost City

Painters Arrange For Traveling Exhibit And Showings In The Southland

The idea of broadcasting Sierra Madre as an art colony and an artistic center through the medium of a traveling exhibit by the painters here was considered at an informal meeting in the "Little Art Gallery" at the City Hall Saturday night. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Fred Griebonow, director of the Little Gallery. W. L. Stanton was elected secretary and the other participants were the 14 artists whose work was shown in the April art exhibit by the hometown talent.

Incidentally the artists pledged their individual and collective efforts to promote the city as an artistic center by the furthering of outside exhibits to be held during the ensuing year, throughout metropolitan districts of the Southland.

Mrs. Griebonow called upon Mrs. H. I. Hawhurst who has arranged previous outside exhibits here to tell of her scheduled exhibits for 1934 which Mrs. Hawhurst said would include showings in the Los Angeles City Hall, the new California State Building in Los Angeles, Exposition Park and the Hollywood Woman's Club.

PTA's Milk Fund To Benefit From Show At School Tonight

Angelo de Angelis, prominent as one of the outstanding tango artists of the Southland, will appear with three different partners in an exhibition of ballroom dancing at the Sierra Madre Grammar School this evening at 8 o'clock. The affair is being held as a benefit for the Parent-Teachers' Association milk fund. Miss Muriel Eastman will be Mr. de Angelis' partner in a waltz number, while Miss Jessie Arloff will dance the tango with him. The Rhumba will be danced by Miss Doris White.

The vaudeville dancing program includes R.K.O. headliners of unusual merit. The presentation will include tap dances, eccentric, acrobatic and ballet dance numbers. Mr. Buckner and Miss Nessley will appear in a novelty number from their vaudeville act, "Dance Impersonations," in which they offer a humorous dance satire on the dances of various foreign nations.

A nominal admission charge is being made for the entertainment. Annual election of officers will be held by the P.T.A. next Wednesday at its regular meeting.

Petition Council For Grading Of All City's Dirt Streets

A petition signed by 197 citizens urging the improvement of Grandview avenue and the construction of a new bridge on that thoroughfare was presented to the Council on Wednesday. It was set forth that with completion of the Santa Anita Highway into the mountains the street will take on added importance.

The petition also asked for the grading and leveling of all other unimproved streets in the city and that the work be done with pick and shovel labor to be paid for by R. F. C. funds.

Mothers Day Will Be Observed In All Churches On Sunday

Local church services will be devoted on Sunday to Mother, in honor of the day set aside for the mothers of the world. Rev. Stewart R. Sheriff will bring to his audience at Bethany Church a talk on "A Great Woman." The Congregational Church will hold special services in each department on Sunday morning and Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard will give as his sermon a talk on "Our Mother." Special songs and features of unusual interest will be presented by the Junior Choir.

Five Nights Of Base Ball Every Week

A six-club City League of baseball teams is expected to get away to a start next Wednesday evening on a schedule now being prepared. Its games will be played on the school athletic field on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays at 8 o'clock, so that the city will have five ball games each week until late in the Fall. Tuesday nights are reserved for the Sierra Madre Furniture team of the Sierra League. Friday evenings are reserved for the local soldier team of the Legion League.

The City League season will be divided into four sections. The two teams winning the highest percentage of games during the season will play off at the close for the city championship. Rules to govern the League are being prepared. One already agreed upon stipulates that all players must either reside or have bona fide employment here.

A trophy will be presented to the champion team, in addition to which William Middough of the Sierra Madre Drug Co., has announced that he will offer prizes for the best batters.

Five teams have already been organized and are ready for the umpire's call to "Play Ball." A sixth team is being organized in the West end of the city and will be known as the "Morganites." The other five contenders are the Kiwanis Junior Legion, Sierra Madre Furniture, "4-12" of Bethany Church and St. Rita's, the latter team being managed for the present by Rev. Father Hyacinth Clary.

Sound Siren For Two Blazes After Months Of Silence

After a lapse of almost three months without activity, the fire department was called into action twice during the week to extinguish minor blazes.

Fire broke out at the residence of Roy Hambaugh, 627 East Orange Avenue, on Wednesday morning, partially destroying a bedroom and furniture. The damage was estimated at $250.

By way of adding to the excitement at the Hambaugh home while the fire was in progress, two dogs staged a combat of their own. With the firemen engaged in fighting the blaze, "Bruce," pet collie of J. M. Steinberger, became embroiled with Mr. Hambaugh's bulldog. Mr. Steinberger modestly admitted that he thought "Bruce," who usually accompanies the fire truck, came out victorious in the side encounter.

The second blaze occurred on Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Al Freeland, 123 West Central avenue. Aside from the burning of a small rug on the floor, no damage was done.

Speaking of Art

drop in and see the work of some home-town artists on the walls of THE NEWS OFFICE. They are decorated for the third time, the present canvases being among those that attracted much attention at the Little Gallery exhibit by local painters that closed last week.

The collection includes two portraits in oil, "Bobby" and "Steve," a landscape, "La Cresta Meadows," and a coast scene, "Sonoma Coast," works of Vernon Morse. Two portraits, "Lady in Red" and "Mrs. Maurice Braun," are by Mrs. Frances Ames, noted portrait painter and a recent addition to the city's art colony. A lone rider is portrayed in an oil painting by Payson Ames.

Important Subjects At Forum Meet

Most Discussed Topics Of The Hour Will Be Featured Tuesday Evening

Dr. Webster Vannier, who has made a special study of the question, will discuss "The National Minimum Wage Law" at the next meeting of the Sierra Madre Forum, in the City Hall, at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, May 16. Al S. Myers, City Business Manager, will take as his subject "Taxes and Unemployment Relief." Mr. Myers is speaking from experience gathered by working with the unemployed organizations and can explain how those organizations have become actual "savers of taxes" to the people of the county.

"A Summary of the Railroad Situation" will be given by Mrs. W. J. Lawless, showing the latest development in the railroad policy as well as the proposed plans of the Federal Government affecting the carriers.

"Further Facts concerning the Utility Situation" will be discussed by Mrs. Grace B. Caukin, who will also show why Miss Frances Perkins has asked that a board of three experienced people from the Department of Labor should assist in carrying out the labor program of the administration.

A cordial invitation is extended to Sierra Madrans who are interested in these subjects. A question hour will follow the talks. Mrs. J. H. Robertson, leader of the Forum, will preside.

Employment Camps Will Be Located In Nearby Mountains

The May meeting of the Angeles Forest Protective Association was held Tuesday evening at the Chevy Chase Club House in Glendale. Prior to the meeting a group of 40 made a tour of the Brand Park motor way, a fire suppression roadway through the Verdugo mountains and San Rafael Hills about 11 miles in length.

The Judge Cruzon cup of merit to the unit making the best service record was presented to Glendora.

George H. Cecil who had recently returned from a Washington conference on the President's reforestation plan, explained the President was taking a very personal interest in the problem. He said the enlistment quota is dependent on population and existence of National Forests. California's quota is 15,000 men to be placed in 200-men camps. Preference will be given to welfare cases first and an assignment of a portion of the pay is to be made to dependents. Military service is no part of the plan; a six months enlistment for work is required. Army officials will have charge of housing and feeding while forestry officials will have charge of work.

About 215 camps will be established in California, Cecil said, and little planting will be done. Most of the work will be on roads, flood and erosion control. Erosion control will be established on the Angeles Crest road in the Arroyo Seco. The men will also be available for fire fighting. Two camps will be established in the Angeles Forest near Sierra Madre, next week, Cecil said.

LICENSING OF CATS AND MORE RIGID ORDINANCE AGAINST 1973 ROOSTERS MAY GO TO VOTERS

Council Considers Referendum As Petitions And Complaints Pile Up

A petition asking for passage of an ordinance licensing cats as dogs are now licensed, a communication urging such action and a letter from the National Association of Audubon Societies on the same subject, caused the City Council on Wednesday night to give serious thought to the matter; also a more rigid ordinance aimed at crowing roosters.

When the various communications had been read, Mayor Reavis informed the Council that he has heard much agitation for the licensing of cats and that there seemed much dissatisfaction over the fact that the police were not given authority to proceed against the owners of roosters who disturb a neighborhood, without the formality of complaints being sworn out by the neighbors themselves. Other members of the Council said they had received similar complaints and requests.

"There are, of course, two sides to the question," said Mayor

Rescue Party Of 18 Hikers From Cliffs

Women And Children Caught On Mountainside When Darkness Comes On

Their progress blocked by steep canyon walls, eighteen hikers, including six children from nearby communities, awaited rescue for several hours on Sunday evening on a high cliff over Bailey Canyon.

The hiking party had become lost while exploring about the cliffs. When overtaken by darkness, they found themselves unable to go forward or to retreat with safety. A boy had been sent on for assistance earlier in the evening. While on his way out, he came upon Deputy Sheriff Simmons of Sierra Madre, who happened to be picnicking in the canyon. Simmons immediately notified local police of the hikers' plight on the cliff and the first aid crew of the volunteer firemen were called into action.

Joe Swanson, Robert Babbitt and Robert Newberry made up a rescue party that set out promptly with ropes, lanterns and other necessary equipment. Upon reaching a point below the distressed hikers, the rescuers succeeded in running a rope line 200 feet up the mountain side to the spot where the hikers were held. Holding to the line members of the party were able to make their way back down into the canyon. Aside from minor scratches, none were injured, though some of the women were badly frightened and highly nervous.

Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Price and three children, of Alhambra; Mr. and Mrs. Lineback, and three children, Mary Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Styles and daughter, all of Wilmar; Mr. and Mrs. H. Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace, of North Hollywood.

Sierra Madran Takes First Prize At Flower Exhibit

"A nice study in delicacy," was the description of the judges at the Monrovia Foothill Garden Club's second annual flower and garden show of a vase of coral bells and columbine entered by Miss Thomasella H. Graham, of North Lima street. The show closed on Saturday night with Miss Graham heading the list of prize winners, who received awards for choice flowers and arrangements.

Fuchsias in a brass water jug, purchased by Miss Graham on the streets of Cairo, Egypt, were displayed at the show with a background of silver. This entry was noted as a "beautiful employment of curves." Miss Jane Edwina James, house guest of Miss Graham, arranged the flowers. Judges included Charles Adams, Lillian Higman and Douglas Donaldson.

Sierra Madre Woman Has Leading Role In Playhouse Cast

Mrs. J. N. Hawks, of 80 East Grand View avenue, will leave about May 17 with the players of "Lavender Ladies," which is to be presented by the Pasadena Community Playhouse in Fresno, Stockton and San Diego. Mrs. Hawks has one of the leading roles in the play.

Reavis, "and it seems to me that the way to find out what the people really want is to submit an ordinance to the voters at the first regular election that will be held here so that they can say whether they wish cats licensed and whether they desire a more direct method of abating the so-called rooster nuisance wherever it appears."

City Solicitor Phil Dodson was asked how the matter might be gotten before the voters. He suggested that those favoring such an ordinance or amendments to the existing nuisance ordinance, should submit an ordinance to the Council. If the Council failed to enact the proposal they might then petition to have the ordinance placed on the ballot. The subject could then be passed upon here at the State election scheduled to be held late in June.

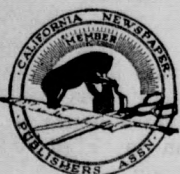

The petition for an ordinance licensing cats expressed the belief that "95 per cent of the local residents are in full accord with the proposal." The preamble to the petition says:

"We wish to add our request to (Continued on Page Two)

MESSAGE OF SPRING

We are in the midst of that season of the year when all nature is buoyant with life, joy and song.

Who of us has not gone forth on a bright spring morning to exclaim, "It is good to be alive today." If we have not given verbal expression to that sentiment, surely we have felt the exuberant spirit in our hearts. But do we carry the joyous note throughout the day, the month and the year?

More likely, when we meet up with the first obstacle, we are apt to release our fresh grip on life and bow to discouragement. We find ourselves enmeshed in the subtle claims of materiality. The glad carol of the morning dwindles to a dirge. Life does not seem so good, after all. Too soon, we have forgotten our blessings.

When thus confronted, it would be well to pause for another look about us. Has the glorious universe changed one iota? No. The birds are still singing; the flowers are still blooming; and the mountains still rise in their majesty. Nature dwells on in harmonious cadence. Nor do the passing days and seasons stay her bountiful progress. Though the world may appear to be gripped in economic chaos and human strife, the fruits of the orchard and the grains of the field ripen to maturity. Then spring comes again to unfold her loveliness.

There is no discord in this natural procedure. All is orderliness and precision—directed to a good and useful end. Discouragement, fear, failure—these are human concepts that have no part in the divine plan. We, as individuals, can not, in reality, be separated from that plan because there is but one Creator. Therefore, we are subject to the same spiritual law, and entitled to share its beneficence.

Our lives would be made happier, and our burdens lightened, if we would more often heed the lessons of nature. Truly, spring brings to us all a message assuring and worthwhile.

Letters From News Readers

LICENSING OF CATS URGED BY READER

To the Editor,
SIERRA MADRE NEWS:

Referring to the article in a recent issue of The News—"Licenses for Cats Demanded of City Council," the writer is sorry she cannot claim to be the originator of such a movement, since cats are already taxed the same as dogs in many communities, and in whole States in fact. Let me quote from an article "Why Not Tax Cats" which appeared in the June 4th, 1933 issue of the Literary Digest:

"Each year the Noise Abatement Commission of New York City, we are told, received more than 2,000 letters complaining about the nightly howling of cats. 'Gamekeepers in different States agree that in the last 25 years the errand cat has become the worst of all enemies to birds. 'In Wisconsin where the raising of pheasants is an important industry, the cat was found to be the most destructive predator, and in that State the cat has been outlawed, except under such control as is prescribed by the Legislature. There are probably few persons living who have not at some time seen a cat spring upon some helpless and harmless bird.

"Cats are the hosts of several animal parasites, some of which are transferable to man. The liver fluke is a natural inhabitant of the cat. Since the female cat, which produces several litters a year, is the chief source of supply, Dr. Robert T. Morris has proposed a tax of $5 on female cats in order to limit, in a humane way, the unwanted and unnecessary army of cats, and thus prevent the destruction of birds which may be laid directly to cats.

"There has been a tax on dogs for many years. Why not tax cats?"

It seems hardly necessary for the writer to go into details as to the justice and real necessity of placing a tax on cats, since the plain undeniable facts in the matter are as follows:

Our city needs all the tax and license fees it can get. Our birds need all the protection from starving, homeless cats we can give them. Our residents need relief from howling cat fights from dark till dawn. Those who wish to raise a few little chickens to help balance the family budget, should be able to do so without having to go to the expense of actually boxing and crating them to keep marauding cats from carrying the chickens out of the top of wire enclosures.

Cats make ideal pets when properly cared for in the home. The writer is very fond of cats and has owned several very fine ones, but they were kept in the house and never allowed to molest either the birds or neighbors. Enough said.

CATS DON'T CROW AT NIGHT, SAYS DEFENDER

To the Editor of The

SIERRA MADRE NEWS:

Some of your readers are quite stirred up over Miss Miller's attack on "Pussy," in last week's News. We too, are fond of the birds, and have our gardens full of them—a chorus of songsters every morning, well patronized bird-bath and all that.

But we also like our pets. There are two notable cats in the neighborhood, about the same age. Both are good mousers and gopher hunters, also one is 12 years old the other nearly 13. Ours has kept the house free of mice, and the yard from gophers ever since he was a kitten. He brought in a gopher only a few days ago, although he has only four teeth left and might be excused from active pursuits. The first mouse to venture into the premises for year, he caught last week. No more have appeared.

He does catch a bird now and then, it is true, for which I am sorry, but there seem to be plenty left to carry on.

Licensing cats would solve the problem of stray felines, but would endanger the lives of all the pets. A cat is bound to wander under shrubbery and fences, and is sure to be caught by a collar, and held in pain and suffering if not discovered.

Let's give the pussies credit for their good qualities. At least they do not crow at night! And I never knew a bird, however good a singer, to sit and purr in front of the open fire!

published in The News regarding the enforcement of the "Nuisance Ordinance" relating to noisy animals and fowls.

Section 21 of the Ordinance reads as follows:

"NOISY ANIMALS: It is hereby declared to be a nuisance and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, to keep, maintain or permit upon any lot or parcel of land within the City of Sierra Madre, under his or its control, any animal or animals, fowl or fowls, which by any sound or cry shall disturb the peace and comfort of any neighborhood."

Upon reading this section it is apparent that to be classed as a nuisance, an animal or fowl must disturb a neighborhood and not merely one or two persons. The police department has on many occasions notified the owner of a noisy animal or fowl and the owner has cooperated and abated the nuisance. But others have failed to do so. In the latter case, where the owner refuses or fails to voluntarily abate the alleged nuisance, the police are powerless to force the abatement or make an arrest unless several persons in the neighborhood apply to the Judge of the City Court for a complaint and a warrant of arrest is issued.

It can be plainly seen that if a person were arrested for violation of this section it would be impossible for the police officers to prove in court that such person was maintaining a nuisance which disturbed the neighborhood unless the persons in that neighborhood who were disturbed so testified in court.

I wish to state that in the instances mentioned where the owner of the animal or fowl failed to voluntarily quiet it, the only reason that court action did not follow was that it either was not a neighborhood nuisance or the neighbors themselves refused to file a complaint and testify in court.

I hope that this explanation will clarify any misunderstanding which may exist relating to the interpretation and enforcement of the Nuisance Ordinance. Very truly yours,
G. G. McMILLAN,
Chief of Police.

A large pink and silver sprinkling can, carrying out the shower idea, was used to present the gifts. Miss Thorpe, who is a kindergarten teacher at the local grammar school, is bride-elect of Warren Lobdell, of Pasadena. The couple will be married sometime this summer. Mrs. C. F. Thorpe, mother of Miss Thorpe, and Mrs. A. D. Dunn were winners of bridge prizes. Guests present were the honoree, Miss Thorpe, Mrs. C. F. Thorpe, of Alta Loma; Mrs. C. A. Royce, of Pasadena, and Mrs. H. B. Hersey, of Sierra Madre.

A bon voyage dinner, honoring Mrs. Frances Burton, who left on Monday by boat for New York, was given on Saturday evening by a group of her friends. She was presented with a lovely gift. Each present drew a date and wrote a letter for Mrs. Burton to read while on the voyage. Those present were Mrs. George McQueston, Mrs. J. F. Key, Mrs. A. L. Phelps, Mrs. C. W. Weaver, Mrs. D. Hauk, Mrs. Caryl Bradford, Mrs. George Johnstone, Mrs. J. D. Culver, Mrs. James Heasley, Mrs. Alfred James Dewey, Mrs. Myrtle Bradford and Mrs. Burton.

Last Shipment Of Wheat Arrives For Jobless And Needy

Relief activities of the local Red Cross chapter move forward in spite of a critical shortage of funds.

A shipment of wheat was received this week from the United States government. This will be the last consignment of government wheat as the supply for relief distribution is now exhausted. Many millions of bushels have been distributed to the various Red Cross units to date. The organization has paid for the milling of the grain and for its transportation throughout the county.

The local chapter distributed 145 sacks of flour to needy families during the month of April, while 54 sacks were furnished to the co-operative association. School lunches have been reduced materially due to the lack of funds. Only 58 school children were provided with lunches during April, though 287 quarts of milk were furnished them in addition to 603 quarts of milk that were delivered to homes. Food and clothing were supplied 102 families.

Other interesting figures cover the repair of children's shoes, aid given to transients; work secured for both men and women. The can collections are coming in daily and many donors are requesting that the cans be retained in their homes. A large number of daily pledges of varying amounts are being made.

Madre Furniture baseball team with a buffet supper on Tuesday evening, following the game with Arcadia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lunny, of the Green Bells Lodge, 352 Vista Circle Drive, entertained several naval officers and their wives on Saturday evening and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Huntsinger, of 431 East Montecito avenue, entertained Sunday afternoon with a "pot luck" dinner. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nute and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith of Monrovia; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, of El Monte, Mr. Eggleston, of Hollywood, and Miss Hannah Anderson, of Arcadia.

People May Vote On Licenses For Cats Strict Rooster Law

the one you recently received regarding the placing of a tax on all cats in this community. It is hardly necessary to go into the pros and cons about the justice and real necessity of placing a tax on cats, nor does it seem necessary to go to the trouble to get up a signed petition by a majority of our residents before the City Council puts such an ordinance in the files of our city. The petition then recites that the city needs all of the fees it can get, that birds need the protection from starving, homeless cats that the residents need protection or relief from howling cat fights and that those who wish to raise chickens may be given protection from marauding cats. It is set forth that the petition represents only a small neighborhood in which sentiment is practically unanimous.

Among the signers are N. B. Krier, Joseph McCarron, Harriet J. Marvin, Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, Amelia Precher, Mrs. E. Roe, Mrs. Clara Kelleher, Mrs. C. M. Fitch, A. N. Adams, E. E. Per Lee, Clara Brown and Mrs. C. C.

A delightful bridge party was given by Mrs. A. L. Phelps, 714 Woodland Drive, last week. Mrs. J. F. Key was winner of the highest score, and Mrs. Caryl Bradford received the consolation prize. Guests included Mrs. M. R. Bradford, Mrs. George McQueston, Mrs. J. F. Key, Mrs. Caryl Bradford, Mrs. Frances Burton, Mrs. D. Hauk, Mrs. C. W. Weaver, Mrs. L. H. Heath, Mrs. George Johnstone, Mrs. J. D. Culver, Mrs. James Heasley, Mrs. Alfred James Dewey, Mrs. Esther Hoover, Mrs. B. Wilson, Mrs. Ida M. Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tedford are to be honored this afternoon with an informal party and reception by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Burbank at their home, 42 East Carter avenue. Mr. Tedford will tell of a trip across the plains in a covered wagon with his parents, when a small boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Wolfe, of 181 Vista Circle Drive, entertained Monday evening with a dinner party. Guests included Miss Blanche Sewell, of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios; Mr. Wolfe's brother, Ralph Wolfe, cartoonist at Warner Brothers studios, and his sister, Miss Louise Wolfe, of Los Angeles.

The Junior League of the Congregational Church enjoyed a party at the home of Mrs. Warren O. Preston, 503 West Montecito avenue, on Friday evening. The game of "put and take" was enjoyed by 21 young people.

Mrs. Mae Marsh, of 41 Victoria Lane, entertained the Sierra

Willis, all of whom reside in the neighborhood extending north on Auburn avenue from Central avenue.

W. E. Hall who terms himself "a spokesman for the birds who are helpless," made a lengthy plea for the birds through the licensing of cats.

A communication from T. Gilbert Pearson, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies, says "The domestic cat is a great destroyer of wild bird life. This is particularly true during the spring months when the young birds are leaving their nests. We feel that some control should be exercised over the cat population . . . by an ordinance which would provide that owners of cats must license them the same as dogs, and authorizing the humane disposal of stray cats which are found without collars with license numbers."

Recondition Trails In Big Santa Anita

Paths From This City Into Forest In Better Condition Than In Recent Years

District Forest Ranger George Armstrong reports that an approximate force of twenty men is now engaged in Big Santa Anita Canyon clearing firebreaks and improving trails.

As a result of the work now in progress, according to Mr. Armstrong, the trails in this district are already in better condition than they have been for several seasons. Surface of the trails have been smoothed over by filling, while the brush and other growth has been cleared away so as to afford free and unobstructed passage. This will be welcome news to all who frequent the mountain area.

It is noted that the work will be continued on the present schedule about July 1, when it is expected that a new and improved map of the area will be made available from the Finance Corporation to enable the forestry department to carry on a more comprehensive program of general improvement throughout the mountain area.

The men now employed on the work in Big Santa Anita Canyon have been selected principally from those already living in or near the canyon. A similar program is under way in the Monrovia area, giving employment to residents of that city and Arcadia.

No work has been done as yet on the Mt. Wilson trail, which comes within the jurisdiction of the Los Angeles County Forestry department. Announcement is made, however, that it will also be reconditioned during the summer.

SELECT POPULATION CREATES WEALTH

Showing Population Growth. Inset: Same Spot Twenty Years Ago.

People of the right type create and determine values. Without people land is practically worthless. The reason values in Los Angeles County have grown to their present state is because the Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce, with some aid of County funds has brought to this community people of the type who, bringing with them their means and substance, have settled raw acreage and turned it into dwelling places with new values and new wealth.

According to the U. S. Census during the past twenty years the population of this county increased four hundred per cent. During that time, according to the Los Angeles County Auditor's Office, the assessed valuation increased six hundred per cent. It has been shown that there is but one solution of our local tax problem, there is but one way out of our present difficulty, and that way is by increasing the activity that is bringing to this community new people with new wealth, who will settle raw lands, and by so doing will put to work laborers in the building of homes, purchase of raw products of foodstuffs, clothing and all the necessities and luxuries of life which permanent residents already settled here have to offer. We can not and dare not stop the program of bringing new people of the right type into this community, who will fill our hotels and apartment houses, who will buy our land, build our buildings and otherwise become a part of this community. This is brought out by officials of the Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce.

A. L. A. Activities

By Dorothy Shetler

THE past week has been filled with many interesting events for the A.L.A. Last Wednesday afternoon the 18th District card party took place at Arcadia. The money raised from this affair was given entirely for Child Welfare and a large crowd was present. Bridge, 500, Cootie, and Jig Saws kept everyone busy. No prizes were given as names were drawn from a basket. In the Sierra Madre contingent, Miss Minnie Stinman won a desirable gift.

Local members of the A.L.A. attending the party were Miss Minnie Stinman, Mrs. Ornelia Stinman, President Maybelle Barker, Mrs. Bertha Irvine, Mrs. Helen Lovejoy, Mrs. Edith Woodruff, Mrs. Kathryn Miller, and Mrs. Dorothy Shetler.

Next on the busy calendar was the rehearsal of the act for the Hi-Jinks. When you consider the fine performance given by the members with only four rehearsals, it makes one wonder just what this gang could do with some real intensive practicing.

Mrs. Elizabeth Goodier changed the rehearsals from a task to a pleasure with the delicious refreshments she served to the weary "tooters." From all reports the stunt was a big success, when it was made public. But the private rehearsals were what you call a "scream" the whole way through. Even if the whole thing would have been a flop, the girls surely had enough fun getting ready to compensate for any disappointments. BUT—it wasn't a flop, but the hit of the show, and I don't mean perhaps!

If I do see to myself, the applause was tremendous. There were 10 acts, and our stunt was the most original, the funniest, and caused the most spontaneous hilarity and applause, of the entire performance. The whole show from start to finish was a success; nevertheless—Sierra Madre unit was the headliner. Hurrah!

Those of the A.L.A. traveling to Alhambra to yell for the home team were Mrs. Nell Mathis, Mrs. Edna Taylor, Mrs. Helen Fleming, Miss Minnie Stinman, Mrs. Ornelia Stinman, Mrs. Louise Roe, our Gym instructress Mrs. George Cobell—not to mention a dozen or so of young ones that went to see "Mama strut her stuff!"

Those taking part in the nutty performance were Edith Woodruff, Maybelle Barker, Leila Embree, Helen Lovejoy, Elizabeth Goodier, Lucile Sparks, Kathryn Miller, Bertha Irvine, Marjorie Stinman and Yours Truly.

Methodists Kathryn Miller's rube dance was the hit of our stunt. If you could have seen her green checkered—ahems—fluttering as she hopped, skipped and jumped, hot cha!

But when you come right down to it, every one was excellent. Elizabeth Goodier's performance on the sliding trombone was something to marvel at. And could H. Lovejoy wait on that saxophone? And you never saw a bassoon being played until you watched Miss Sparks. Our noble French director, Edith Woodruff—she just looked like Desperate Desmond of long ago comic strip fame.

The little Jewish drummer boy certainly needed a shave or a

Poppies To Be Sold Here By Veterans Of Foreign Wars

Plans for the distribution of Veterans of Foreign Wars Buddy Poppies in Sierra Madre, Monrovia and Arcadia, during the week prior to Memorial Day, in the Twelfth Annual Buddy Poppy sale conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, were completed yesterday according to an announcement by Frank J. Bole, Commander of Post No. 2070.

"Nearly 3,000 units of our organization, scattered from coast to coast," said Bole, "rely upon the proceeds of this undertaking as a method of securing funds for local relief activities. The rules and regulations governing the nationwide sale of Buddy Poppies confine the disbursement of these proceeds exclusively to relief and welfare activities."

"As in the past, one cent from each Buddy Poppy that adorns the lapel of patriotic citizens on Memorial Day will be diverted to the support and maintenance of the V.F.W. National Home for widows and orphans of deceased or totally disabled veterans, at Eaton Rapids, Michigan."

little sleep or both, didn't he, Maybelle? Miss Stinman was fine in her mammy make-up and dance. The Professor at the piano was excellent, and when those in the know—knew how Leila Embree was suffering with a badly lacerated finger, were able to realize the trouper's rule "the show must go on," in spite of a great deal of physical discomfort. The accident happened before leaving Sierra Madre, but she showed a lot of gameness by going on to Alhambra and playing the piano after she got there. Three cheers for Leila!

And last but not least were the two Scotch laddies—a real breath of the heather. If you missed these masterpieces of makeup and costume believe you me, you missed sumpin! The Highlanders were Bertha Irvine and D. Shetler. Just a word to the wise is sufficient... when this act goes on again, be among those present. It's really out of the amateur class.

The Dance given by the Daughters of the Union Veterans was a success, according to Nell Mathis, Bertha Irvine and Augusta Coats. Nell Mathis tried to copy a good spill enacted by the sprawling Highlander the night before, but we understand it wasn't such a grand impersonation!

The Junior A.L.A. met at the home of their President and Treasurer, Marjorie and Twila Stinman on Saturday afternoon. The business part of the session was devoted to discussions and plans for the Poppy Day Sale. The girls are very active and interested in all branches of veteran service.

Sam Graham, city engineer, returned to the home of his aunt, Miss Thomasella H. Graham, on Monday from the Garfield Hospital, Monterey Park, where he underwent a very delicate operation on his right wrist a week ago. The operation tied eight leaders and nerves severed in an automobile accident in San Marino several weeks ago when Graham, R. O. Calkin and William Schwartz were in a smashup while enroute to guard duty at a camp of earthquake refugees.

POLITE COMEDY NOW AT THE PLAYHOUSE

Herbert Bunston, noted actor of the English stage and of motion pictures, plays a role in the gay, satirical comedy of intrigue, "Petticoat Influence," which opened on Tuesday at the Pasadena Playhouse. Delicately balanced on the border line of polite comedy and farce, the theme of "Petticoat Influence" is that of a clever woman achieving effective results in the battle for the man she loves.

D.U.V.C.W. Doings

By Lee S. High

The Barn Dance given by the local tent D.U.V.C.W. Saturday evening was voted by everyone present as the most pleasant affair they had attended for a long time. Leonard Wamrock won the prize for the best and most amusing costume worn by a gentleman. Mrs. Vernon Udell won the prize for the best lady's costume.

The Hill Billies of Sierra Madre covered themselves with glory by their snappy music. The ball room was appropriately decorated with harness, saddles, bales of hay and even a hen's nest, containing a baker's dozen of eggs was not forgotten.

We thank our friends for helping us make this affair such a success.

Batter Up

With the beginning of the city league of night baseball games this column will be devoted exclusively to the batting average of the two leading batters on each team.

If the managers of their respective teams will turn in the names of their two best batters each week their names will be listed together with their average of the week preceding.

At the end of the season this store will give a worthwhile gift to the winner.

Get in everyone... Do your best... make this year's games better than last... and win the prize.

The Business of Money

To make money is the ultimate goal of all business. To have money is the aim of all people—not for the money's sake, but for the comfort, education and happiness that it will bring, and as a reserve against emergency.

Every wise business executive creates a sinking fund or reserve to guard against the unknown. A part of this fund should be in the form of a savings account at this bank—it can be used as a loan security, and it will earn a good rate of interest.

BEGONIAS AND FERNS

By Jessie Ward Russell
Landscape Gardener

BEGONIAS and Ferns are two plants that are great pals in the plant world. Where you find one you will find the other, or feel that something is lacking to make the picture complete.

Both need the same kind of cultural treatment. Both revel in the partial sunlight as it filters through the vine-covered trellis or foliage of trees. Both will stand some abuse. Both love unlimited water but they must also have perfect drainage.

Be sure that your begonia-fern bed is well drained. Sour, soggy soil is deadly to these plants. They will grow in about any kind of soil but for best results they require a soil full of humus in the form of leaf mold or rotted manures. They should have partial shade and plenty of water.

Every two years the bed should be made over. The plants should be lifted out, divided where possible, and reset after the soil has been dug up and replenished with leaf mold or old rotted manure. If the bed is not renovated in this way, the ferns will usually choke out all the other plants.

Other plants that can be successfully grown in the begonia fern bed are Camellias, Fuchsias, Hydrangeas, Saxifragas, Cinerarias, Primroses and Lobelias.

Two brilliant annuals little grown but deserving of wide popularity in the garden, are the clarkias and godetias, both members of the evening primrose family and having the satiny texture to their bloom that characterize so many of the plants of this tribe. They prefer a poor soil and are most brilliant on skimpily fare and wax gross and too lazy to give their best bloom if well fed.

For a patch of poor, dry soil try one or both of these annuals. The clarkias have been taken up by the greenhouse men and now are popular for winter cut flowers, but they are just as handsome in the garden and very easily grown. The double varieties are best for cutting, ranging from white through light and deep pink to orange scarlet.

The godetias have large blooms of more brilliant coloring, often splashes of color on light grounds to make them more striking in appearance. New gladiolus-flowered forms are offered which will prove fine cutting material.

One of the older varieties of godetia, Rosamond, is a favorite for planting narrow waste strips where its brilliant satiny pink flowers make a fine show. These plants are best sown where they are to bloom, sowing the seed thinly; thin the plants to stand about eight inches apart. They like sun.

Good Times
Coming For
Citrus Men

Noted Growers' Leader
Cheers Orchardists In Speech At Whittier

Better times are ahead for the citrus growers of California, it was predicted by C. C. Teague, president of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, and National leader in cooperative marketing and agricultural circles, who spoke Tuesday evening to over four hundred citrus growers and business leaders at the annual meeting of the Inter-Service Clubs at Whittier.

It would be strange indeed if the citrus industry did not share in the general effects of the great business depression of modern times, he said, adding the more nearly normal business conditions and re-employment of labor are pre-requisites to the prosperity of any industry. He said the California citrus industry has been trying for years to accomplish the very same type of co-operation that President Roosevelt is now asking of all branches of agriculture and industry.

Discussing marketing conditions of farm products and particularly of citrus fruits, Mr. Teague said, in part:

"It has been most unfortunate for the growers of oranges in the effect on the prices received and the values of their properties that the Exchange did not market the same percentage of oranges as it did lemons. With well over 90 per cent of the lemon production signed up in the Exchange lemon agreement, we have pro-rated shipments and regulated the supply to meet the demand, and have maintained a stable market for the past seven years. This has been done in the face of an average surplus of 25 per cent, which had to go to by-products on a salvage basis.

"I leave it to you lemon growers whether the prices we have maintained on lemons and the relative prosperity of that industry are the result of co-operative marketing, or the programs we heard advanced that propose to let you ship all your fruit and let the other fellow hold his fruit back and pay for the advertising, or in the program that competition among shippers is necessary. I submit the results of the past seven years of co-operative lemon marketing by 90 to 95 per cent of the growers operating under the lemon agreement, as a sufficient answer to the question of which is the sound program.

"After signing our own local associations several weeks ago to Exchange Navel and Valencia agreements, similar to the Exchange lemon agreement, the Exchange signed the Farm Bureau stabilization agreements and promptly delivered them to Dr. Waynick, chairman of the committee. I am happy to say that we were in position to do so, and thus set the example for other shippers, whose cooperation was necessary to place the stabilization program in operation.

"The Farm Bureau Committee was unable to secure the signatures of other shippers promptly enough to make the plan effective on Navel, but as you know, the plan is now in operation on Valencias. The Exchange will do everything it can to make the stabilization plan a success, because therein lies the best opportunity to improve our returns per acre for the balance of this season.

"Controlling volume of shipments is not the only essential factor in distribution and sale, however, and we must not overlook the importance of increasing consumer demand by advertising, if we are ever to profitably market the big production of citrus fruits of future years. Likewise, continued reduction in costs and efficiency in marketing by more unified distribution of fruit and elimination of competition and price cutting in the markets. One other principle should be clearly understood. More of a product can be sold on a stabilized market at a fair price than can be sold on a demoralized market at a low price.

"Whether shipments are regulated and controlled by the Exchange, or under an industry pro-rated agreement such as has now been signed and which will go into effect on Valencia shipments, it is of the utmost importance that they be regulated if the industry is to get anything above production costs.

"Being somewhat of an optimist after all, I can see better times ahead," said Mr. Teague. "The pro-rate or stabilization agreement for this season's Valencias is accomplished, and as long as it is complied with, will undoubtedly result in an improvement in prices. If this agreement has to be abandoned through lack of support or compliance, the industry has, as a great bulwark, the California Fruit Growers Exchange, which has stood the test of time for 40 years, and which can be built up to a percentage of control so as to regulate supplies and stabilize prices."

Assembly Improves
Tax Plan

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Sec. Agricultural Legislative Committee of California

TEMPERING zeal with a measure of caution, the State Legislature, during its closing days, has finally brought some semblance of order out of the chaos of its economy and tax relief programs.

Two major results of the settling-down process, both of prime importance, are these: 1—Adoption of the amended Riley-Stewart tax plan, which will go before the voters of the State at a special election on June 6th or thereabouts. 2—Adoption of the State budget as amended in the Senate, with some of the most glaring inequalities eliminated.

With both the Riley tax plan and the budget, calm judgment rubbed off many of the rough edges and eliminated radical provisions. While still far from perfect, the Riley tax plan, as finally adopted, appears to be the best solution of the taxation puzzle available. There are, at least, many improvements over the plan in its original form.

From the standpoint of agriculture, the most attractive feature of the program is that it holds out the promise of $52,000,000 in tax relief to common property taxpayers. Whether this will bring the measures of relief to owners of real property which is badly needed will depend on the operation of the 2 per cent consumer's retail sales tax which is also a feature of the measure.

In brief, the Riley plan embodies these salient provisions: 1—Repeal, two years hence, of "Amendment Number 1," which will return $1,300,000,000 in public utility operative property to county tax rolls. 2—Elimination of the present county matching requirements for school purposes, the State absorbing $40,000,000 now paid by the counties for elementary and secondary school support and paying the bill with the 2 per cent sales tax and a tax on the franchises of corporations. 3—Strict limitations on county budgets and State and county expenditures, but so adjusted as to eliminate competition between counties for State funds.

ECHO PARK'S TENNIS ACES TIE ONE, DROP SEVEN MATCHES TO LOCAL STARS IN FAST PLAY

Sierra Madre's tennis stars evened the score with their rivals in the crack Echo Park Tennis Club when they won seven out of twelve matches, tying the eighth on the City Park courts here on Sunday.

The first play of the day saw Emile Smith in a singles match with Mandekie of Echo Park. Smith displayed some fine tactics in winning 6-0, 6-2, as Mandekie was unable to return Smith's good placements and cut shots.

In the first doubles tilt Clayton and Wayne Perry played very good tennis to defeat Shupper and Lishner 6-2, 6-3. This winning team will be heard from later as they are becoming very spectacular.

In a surprise match and also an upset, Wes Perry was defeated by the 15-year-old Smalley who matched Perry stroke for stroke and when Wes became unsteady put over the winning strokes 8-6, 6-0.

Homer Tuttle lost to Borich of Echo Park in a well played match 6-3, 6-4. In one of the best matches of the day Wes Perry defeated Parker of the visiting team in a hard fought three set match 8-6, 3-6, 7-5.

Clayton of the local team had little trouble in defeating, McCord 6-0, 6-0. Bill Pyle, after experiencing some difficulty in the first set with Lishner, started his hard drives working perfectly and won 1-6, 6-2, 6-1.

Paired with Wes Perry, with whom he holds the Sierra Madre doubles crown, Emile Smith also won a hard doubles match from Parker and Mandekie 7-5, 3-6, 6-4. Echo Park's best doubles team, Terry and Borich, were no match for the team play of Wood and Tuttle of Sierra Madre, the latter winning 6-3, 6-3.

Don Terry the tall Echo Park singles ace, easily defeated Wood 6-0, 6-0. After playing two matches in the morning, Wayne Perry played Toley a three set match, that was first one way then another, Toley winning 6-0, 3-6, 9-7.

In a match that would still be going on if it had not been called off by darkness, Pyle and Wes Perry divided two sets with Toley and "What-a-Man" Bob Chavis, 8-6, 10-12.

In an exhibition match Miss Springer defeated Mrs. Tuttle in a well-played two-set match.

Sierra Madre got its final run in the seventh on a two-base hit by Olsen who scored when Rackford dropped Fleming's fly to center.

The first Monterey Park batter to face Burroughs in the eighth struck out. The next two men up drew passes and Folke followed with a single which scored Erdman with Monterey Park's first run. The next two batters were retired in order.

Monterey's big inning came in the ninth when five runs went over. The score:

Trout Plentiful But Small Anglers In Santa Anita Say

The weekend saw many Sierra Madre fishermen in the mountains along the Big Santa Anita stream.

Early Saturday morning Howard Lieben Jr., Bob Leiben, David Palmer and Bill Hansen left for Fern Lodge to spend Saturday and Sunday fishing. The party caught 74.

Arthur Evans and his sons, Preston and Edwin stayed over the weekend at their cabin back of Fern Lodge.

Russel Pratt and Kenneth Allen had a cabin for Friday and Saturday nights at Fern Lodge. Robert Colbert stayed one night with them. Their fishing luck was fairly good.

George Tyler and Bud Solury fished all day Sunday and George hooked eight.

Eddie and Harry Feder also fished Sunday but were disappointed by not having very good success in snaring the wary trout. Most of the anglers report that the fish are biting good but are small.

KIWANIS HEARS TALK ON REFRIGERATION

Refrigeration, the types and the mechanism, was the subject of H. W. Geyer, Industrial Engineer of the Southern Counties Gas Company, at the Kiwanis Club meeting and luncheon on Tuesday. He vividly described how through the elimination of heat a temperature can be maintained indefinitely below the point at which food begins to spoil.

In the absence of President W. J. Lawless, Dr. J. L. Woehler, vice-president, presided and reported the progress that is being made by the baseball team sponsored by the Kiwanis.

Music And Drama Are Amalgamated In The Art League

League's Board of Governors the last link in the Allied Artists has been forged.

It means from now on that Art, Music and Drama are going to be a set of triplets in our community, each working one for all and all for one.

It was decided by the Governors that owing to the League's limited improvements in the "Old Barn" that the first group started will have to be limited to not over twenty-five members. When sufficient funds can be secured to complete the rest of the housing facilities of the "Barn," double that group can be handled.

In the meantime it was decided to have each prospective student file an entrance application. The form of an application blank was approved by the Board and it is hoped in next week's issue of The News that full details as to how to secure them may be published.

According to the bookkeeping department the League is slightly in the red and yet have to wire the "Barn" before actual work can start. This wiring job will probably cost about fifteen dollars—for material, as good scouts will furnish the labor 'free for nothing.' How are we going to do it?

One of Payson Ames' famous wood block prints will be given as a prize to the one solving the problem.

The League wishes to thank Rudolph Hartman who made a mighty good photograph of the entrance to the "Old Barn." Rudy got out a lot of gadgets, squinted thru them and everything—pressed a button and the whole darn thing was done.

P.S.—How about the old shed or shack that you want removed from your back lot—The League will do it without cost to you for the material. We also intimated that the League needed old chairs and almost any-old-thing—how's about it?
